2/17/71

Dear Bud,

"Our Murdered Presidents" is about the crappiest of the crappy, which is about what I'd have expected from the name of the publisher, that of the author being unknown to me.

Brooks can't even read and understand, which is a good enough reason what he can't write accurately. By this I mean he didn't even understand the most basic aspects of the Warren Commission writing on and testimony about the Autopsy. Nor did his editor catch such simple things as mistakes in arithmetic.

Too bad. That's a subject on which we could stand some light.

Glad to be able to read it, though, for otherwise, at some time in the future, I might fear I'd missed something.

I'll bering it back next time I'm in D.C.

Thanks,

HW